

Rental Policies & Contract

Updated January, 2022

As you prepare to use Camp Mardela for your retreat, family gathering, or other program, we ask you to review the following policies. They will serve as the conditions of your contract with Camp Mardela. You will be expected to communicate these policies to the rest of your group.

Property Rules

- General
 - Alcohol, smoking and illicit drugs are NOT permitted on camp property.
 - Pets are not permitted unless they are certified service animals.
 - Weapons are not permitted under any conditions.
- Vehicles
 - Vehicles must be parked in designated areas:
 - King, Krabill, Cabin, RV & Tent Parking (using tent sites in RV area).
 - Lot in front of basketball court.
 - Grassy area used for overflow parking.
 - Pavilion & Tent Parking (using tent sites by ponds).
 - Lot in front of pavilion.
 - Handicapped Parking.
 - Next to King (marked with signs).
 - Front parking spaces at pavilion (marked with signs).
 - Space in front of carpet pool table by Krabill Hall.
 - You may drive to the retreat center and dining hall to unload luggage and food and then park your car in designated lots.
 - DO NOT drive to the cabins.
 - Observe speed limits. In areas where no speed limit is posted, assume a 5 mph speed limit.
- Equipment
 - Basic sports equipment is provided
 - Watercraft equipment is available, but must be rented separately
 - Groups may bring their own equipment. Camp Mardela is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged personal equipment.
 - Any damage to equipment or property must be reported to the Administrator. Extensive damages will be billed to your group
 - If, upon arrival, you find that the cleanliness or repair of the facility is unsatisfactory, please report to the Administrator immediately
- Multi-group Policies
 - Do not use areas of camp that you have not expressly rented (with the exceptions of common areas)
 - If you are sharing the facility with another group, schedule use of common areas such as playgrounds, campfire circles, picnic areas, and outdoor gathering areas, directly with the other group or through the Administrator

- Lost & Found
 - Check all occupied areas thoroughly for any personal items.
 - For items left behind, arrangements should be made to pick them up at the camp's convenience
 - Items that need to be mailed or shipped will require a $5.00 service charge plus the cost of postage to have them located and mailed
- Environment
 - Do not cut/deface/remove trees or other plants/ shrubs
 - Do not litter
 - Observe and appreciate wild animals from a distance
 - Fires may only be built in designated areas. they must be attended at all times, and extinguished with water when finished
 - Check with the administrator before building a fire

Health and Safety

- Camp Mardele does not provide on-site medical care for groups renting facilities. Local emergency numbers are listed near the phones. 911 is available. We recommend that you consider some basic first aid needs
 - Provide at least one adult who is currently certified in first aid and CPR
 - Bring adequate first aid supplies (some First Aid kits will be available in buildings)
 - Dedicate a vehicle for emergency transportation .
- Accidents and injuries should be reported to Camp Administrator if it was a direct result of camp property or facilities, camp property or facilities were damaged in the incident, or if local emergency services were called to camp
- Leaders of children/youth events must secure and have a basic health history form for each participant that is not accompanied by a parent or legal guardian at all times
 - This form should include basic information such as allergies, medications, special needs, emergency phone numbers, and a consent statement signed by the parent or legal guardian which gives permission to provide emergency medical care if necessary
 - If participants have medicine that must be taken during the program, it must be stored under lock unless under the constant supervision of authorized personnel.

Leadership and Supervision

- The person in charge of the group is responsible to ensure positive group behavior, whether adults, children, or youth. If a group primarily is serving children or youth, the leader must provide adequate & qualified adult supervision for the safety of participants.
 - Participants 6 to 8 years old..... 1 adult to 5 children
 - Participants 9 to 14 old..... 1 adult to 8 children/youth
 - Participants 15 to 18 years old..... 1 adult to 10 youth
 - Participants 19 and over 1 leader to 20 participants
- We recommend avoiding 1 on 1 interactions with children. The best way to prevent this is the “rule of 3”. Always have at least 3 people (2 children, 1 adult, 2 adults, 1 children, etc).
- If using bunk rooms, children under 16 are NOT permitted on the top bunks.

Emergency Procedures

- Medical Emergency
 - Once an illness or injury occurs, assess the person to determine the cause, severity, and treatment needed

- As applicable, have a First Aid certified staff or volunteer perform First Aid and record treatment in the First Aid notebook with the kit
- If illness or injury is minute (small cut, small sunburn, etc), monitor the person afterwards and determine if additional help is needed
- Missing Person
 - If a participant becomes lost, do a thorough search within and around the facility being rented and the pond area
 - If the individual is not found, report to the Administrator for assistance
- Fire
 - All facilities are equipped with smoke alarms and emergency exits. Please be sure to take note of these and point them out to participants
 - In the event of an uncontrolled fire, evacuate the building immediately, call 911, and notify the Administrator
 - Additional emergency information can be found posted in King and Krabill
- Storm
 - The Administrator will monitor weather conditions and keep your group informed
 - If conditions worsen, groups should gather indoors and wait out the storm
 - If there is an impending storm and utilities, buildings, or people's lives are threatened, your group may be advised to leave
- Intruders
 - If a stranger enters your facility, or lingers in the area, you are advised to politely ask who he/she is and what their business is at camp and may ask them kindly to leave explaining that your group is renting the facility
 - If they want information about Camp Mardela, refer them to the Administrator.
 - If a stranger is asked to leave and refuses, contact the Administrator
- Loss of Electricity
 - The Administrator will immediately contact Choptank Electric. While waiting for service, build a fire and enjoy the serenity of a quiet camp
 - The well is operated by electricity. Keep water usage to a minimum and avoid flushing the toilets with just one use
 - Do not open refrigerated areas, and if power is out for more than 4 hours, move items to coolers and check that food is still being maintained at safe temperatures.
 - If the power is not restored for several hours, Administrator will help. If necessary, you will be advised to return home and financial compensation will be arranged

Before Leaving

Before leaving, your group is responsible to care for the following:

- Wipe down table sand chairs and return to proper storage.
- Sweep dining room floor and vacuum carpeted room, sleeping rooms and hallway

- Turn off heat, air conditioners, and lights
- Pick-up paper, litter, etc. in and around areas used
- Double check rooms, bathrooms, coat racks, etc. for personal items

Rental Group Kitchen Use

User groups are required to know and follow the state health code requirements when using our licensed kitchen. Please follow the postings in the kitchen. Appoint one participant to be the contact person responsible for overseeing proper use and clean-up of the kitchen.

- No unnecessary people should be in the kitchen preparing and cleaning up after meals
- The person in charge of the kitchen is responsible for checking refrigerator and dishwasher temperatures. The temperatures can be charted on forms in the kitchen:
 - Refrigerators – 40 degrees or less
 - Freezers – 25 degrees or less
 - Sterilizer wash temp – 100 degrees. If a problem arises call the Administrator
 - If temperatures are not within these thresholds, contact the Administrator
- Keep lids on garbage cans. Replace bag in the can. Do not set garbage outside. Place garbage in the dumpster by the shop
- The grill is available, but only if it is properly cleaned (top and grease trap) after use.
- Do not place hot pans/skillets on the countertops
- Clean/sanitize counters before and after every meal
- Wipe the stainless steel counter clean and dry after each meal
- Use of the kitchen includes all supplies available
- Keep meals simple so you have time to enjoy your trip to camp
- Your group is responsible for bringing and taking home all of your own food items
- Damages to kitchen equipment and/or uncleanliness will be billed to your group

Kitchen cleaning expectations

- Dishes, pots, pans, utensils are to be washed, sanitized, air dried stored
- Counter tops cleaned and sanitized
- Dishwashing area must be clean and dry, and dishwasher bins are properly stored
- Dish cloths may be placed in the basket near the laundry facilities
- Oven and exhaust fans turned off
